Presented by: Mark Lynn and John McKiernan, PSEA UniServ Representatives

February 11, 2021 ♦ Via Zoom
4:30-6 p.m.

All too often, employees find themselves in disciplinary difficulty when a few simple strategies and some proactive action could have prevented it. With recent changes in mandatory reporting and the explosion of social media, we find more and more people in tough situations. Additionally, when an employee is stressed outside of work, it often leads to a poor decision at work. Using a combination of actual incidents and common sense strategies, this session will help you avoid those sleepless nights and help you to sidestep some of those common pitfalls.
