Conflict Management

Presenter: Nathan Greenawalt

Conflict is inevitable but there are many different styles of managing conflict. This session focuses on your individual conflict styles, types of conflicts, and the information we need to be able to manage them better. The goal is to help individuals empower themselves with choices and enhance the ability to manage conflicts in life. Conflict isn't good or bad - it's how we deal with it that makes all the difference! This workshop is interactive.

Generational Diversity and the “Millennial”

Presenters: Chris Clayton

This fun, engaging, and insightful course calls for participants to look at defining aspects of American generations in society. From the Baby Boomers to Gen Xers to Millennials and the “I Generation,” the course begins by defining, comparing, and contrasting the generations before zooming in on the Millennial generation, where we delve into what current research is revealing about the societal and workforce trends of the emerging dominant generation of American society. Continuing Education Hours are Available with District Pre-approval.
