The critically acclaimed debut novel from Stephen Chbosky follows “wallflower” Charlie as he charts a course through the strange world between adolescence and adulthood. First dates, family drama, and new friends. Sex, drugs, and The Rocky Horror Picture Show. Devastating loss, young love, and life on the fringes. Charlie must learn to navigate those wild and poignant roller-coaster days known as growing up.

This Book Club discussion will explore how teachers can use the book to demonstrate how friendship and the escape into music and literature can help students deal with the trauma that often comes with growing up.

The Perks of Being a Wallflower is on the Banned Books list and was written by local author Stephen Chbosky, graduate of Upper St. Clair High School.
