Gender Queer
Maia Kobabe

October 25, 2022 (6:00-7:00 PM) • 7 Act 48 Hours
Join Maia in a journey of self-identity in this autobiography and guide on gender identity—what it means and how to think about it—for advocates, friends, and humans everywhere. As one of the most frequently banned books in US schools, this cathartic autobiography presents a unique lens on the intersections of politics, policy, and social justice faced by today’s educators. Led by Dr. Gina Gullo.

Improve Every Lesson Plan with SEL
Jeffrey Benson

November 3, 2022 (6:00-7:00 PM) • 6 Act 48 Hours
Drawing on 40+ years of educator experience, Benson offers research-based strategies to seamlessly integrate self, interpersonal, and community SEL skills into every section of your lesson plans in this practical and inspirational book. The author inspires educators to develop a community of learners with experiences and skills that they can contribute to a better, more equitable world both inside and outside the classroom. Led by Dr. Chris Clayton.

The Island of Dr. Libris
Chris Grabenstein

November 10, 2022 (6:00-7:00 PM) • 7 Act 48 Hours
The Island of Dr. Libris is a humorous and fantastical summer journey by New York Times best-selling author Chris Grabenstein. The book is written at Lexile Level 640 and the target audience is students in grades 4-8. Led by Judith Petruzzi.

Poison for Breakfast
Lemony Snicket

November 15, 2022 (6:00-7:00 PM) • 5 Act 48 Hours
Join Lemony Snicket for a journey inside his mind as he travels through his day and reflects upon his breakfast and life. This is a quirky read by a unique author. The target audience for this mystery/bewilderment is age 9 and up. Led by Judith Petruzzi.

Register at: psea.org/Act48BookDiscussions
Download/Share Flyer: bit.ly/CPLfall