November & December 2022

Nov 3 (6:00-7:00 PM): Improve Every Lesson Plan with SEL by Jeffrey Benson

Long-time educator, Benson, offers multiple research-based strategies to seamlessly integrate self, interpersonal, and community social and emotional learning skills into every part of your lesson plans in this practical and inspirational book with a discussion led by Dr. Chris Clayton.

Nov 10 (6:00-7:00 PM): The Island of Dr. Libris by Chris Grabenstein

Embark on a humorous and fantastical summer adventure as shared by New York Times best-selling author, Chris Grabenstein. Then, engage in a discussion, led by Judith Petruzi, of this book written for students in grades 4-8 (640L).

Nov 15 (6:00-7:00 PM): Poison for Breakfast by Lemony Snicket

Join this unique author, Lemony Snicket, on a journey into his mind as he travels through his day and reflects upon his breakfast and life. The discussion of this quirky mystery/bewilderment work for ages 9 and older is led by Judith Petruzi.

Register at: www.psea.org/act48bookdiscussions

---

Microcredentials for PSEA Members

What?

- Competency-based recognitions of professional skills.
- Job-integrated professional learning experiences.
- Tools that help educators develop skills and acquire knowledge to improve classroom practice and support student success.

Why?

Those who complete and submit a microcredential receive at least 15 Act 48 hours.

If your microcredential is accepted after being evaluated, you will receive:

- 20 Act 48 hours
- OR
- 15 Act 48 hours and 1 college credit (equivalent to 30 Act 48 Hours) from PennWest (Edinboro) University for only $70 per credit.

Learn more at: https://www.psea.org/collegecredit

---

Member Well-Being

Nov 14 (4:45-5:30 PM): Mindful Monday with Sandy Williams

Dec 12 (4:45-5:30 PM): Mindful Monday with Sandy Williams

Register at: www.psea.org/wellness

---