

Associate Staff Counsel

PSEA is looking to fill two full-time, temporary attorney positions. The “Associate Staff Counsel” positions will be located in Allentown and West Chester, PA and extends for two years, with a possible third year.

The Associate Staff Counsel positions are similar to a labor and/or education law internship. The attorney will perform legal research and writing and provide litigation support to PSEA Staff Attorneys. In addition, the attorney will support the PSEA Legal Division in advising PSEA, its local affiliates, and members on matters of statewide and organizational significance. In addition, this position supports attorneys who are litigating cases. Interested applicants should have an interest in labor and/or education law, have strong legal research and writing skills, and be able to analyze complex legal issues and prepare legal memoranda, briefs and pleadings as assigned by the attorneys. This individual must also have self-supporting computer skills.

PSEA is looking for someone who is willing to make a two to three year commitment. These positions will be available in September 2022. The salary will be approximately $67,000 with employer paid health insurance and a comprehensive benefits package. Admission to the PA Bar is preferred for consideration for this position and is required after the first admission date after employment.

All submissions must be received no later than:
January 17, 2022

Interested candidates must submit:

- ⇒ Resume
- ⇒ Latest Transcript
- ⇒ References
- ⇒ Writing Sample

To:

PSEA—
Human Resources
ATTN: ASC
400 North 3rd Street
P.O. Box 1724
Harrisburg, PA 17105

OR

jobs@psea.org

PSEA History

PSEA is a professional and labor organization representing over 178,000 members. The majority of our members are public school employees. PSEA also represents employees in private schools, colleges and universities, correctional facilities and health care institutions, retired employees, and students preparing for employment in education or health care. PSEA has been an advocate for excellence in education since 1852. PSEA’s legal staff is comprised of a General Counsel, an Assistant General Counsel, thirteen staff attorneys, five associate staff counsel, thirteen support staff, and four retained counsel located across the state. The PSEA Legal Division provides advice and counsel to all aspects of the organization and engages in litigation concerning issues of statewide importance. PSEA attorneys specialize in labor and education law, and practice before arbitrators, state and federal courts, and various state and federal agencies, including the Pennsylvania Labor Relations Board, the Professional Standards and Practices Commission, the Pennsylvania School Employees’ Retirement Board, the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission, the National Labor Relations Board, and the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission.