

Checking on Your Black Colleagues and the Invisible Backpack of White Privilege (Moving from Anti-Racist to Ally)*

Facilitated by: MaryAnn Green, Kate Santoro, Jessica Steffy, Kristina Boyko, and Tanya Francis, Educational Justice Committee Members

February 9, 2021 ♦ 6:00 - 7:00 p.m.
Via Zoom

In this course we will look at how to best support your black colleagues during difficult times. We'll also explore white privilege and how your perception of that has changed in light of recent events. How do you go from being anti-racist to becoming an ally? Using resources that will be provided once you register, we will be facilitating a roundtable discussion around these issues to broaden our understanding of our own thoughts and how that also influences interactions in the classroom.

Note: About a week prior, participants will be emailed resources to read prior to the workshop; this time is figured into the hours.

Paraprofessionals, if taking this workshop for the hours, it is recommended that you obtain pre-approval from your employer to ensure the hours will be accepted.

Members with teaching certificate, if you provide your PPID #, you will receive 1½ Act 48 hours for this workshop.

1½-hour
workshop

Pre-registration is required.
RSVP no later than February 2, 2021

(online at www.psea.org/er or email to e-rgn@psea.org)

About a week before your session, you will receive a confirmation email containing Zoom information for the workshop as well as an assignment to be completed prior to the workshop.