

The Implicit and Explicit Bias Attached to Black Men & Black Girls*

Presented by: Jessica Steffy, Educational Justice Committee Member

January 19, 2021 ♦ 6:00 - 7:00 p.m.
Via Zoom

In this course we will look at how the media influences pre-existing biases to skew the public's understanding of black men and black women within society. Using resources that will be provided once you register, we will be facilitating a roundtable discussion around this issue to broaden our understanding of our own thoughts and how that also influences interactions in the classroom.

Note: About a week prior, participants will be emailed resources to read prior to the workshop; this time is figured into the hours.

Paraprofessionals, if taking this workshop for the hours, it is recommended that you obtain pre-approval from your employer to ensure the hours will be accepted.

Members with teaching certificate, if you provide your PPID #, you will receive 1½ Act 48 hours for this workshop.

Pre-registration is required.
RSVP no later than January 12, 2021
(online at www.psea.org/er or email to e-rgn@psea.org)

About a week before your session, you will receive a confirmation email containing Zoom information for the workshop as well as an assignment to be completed prior to the workshop.
