PROGRAM OVERVIEW

Mission Statement:

To increase awareness of the labor movement, its historical importance, and its necessity in the future.

Criteria for Judging:

A two-dimensional project, for example - a quilt, poster, painting, collage, photograph, mural, or computer-generated art which reflects:

- Artistic Merit
- Creativity
- Historical Accuracy
- Mission Statement

Guidelines:

- Applicant must be a member in good standing of PSEA/NEA and local or appropriate affiliate, or Healthcare PSEA. Individuals or groups may submit an entry as long as each participant is a PSEA/NEA local or appropriate affiliate in good standing. Employees of PSEA are not eligible.
- A 150-word (approximate) summary statement must accompany the application form and include an explanation of how the work fulfills the Mission Statement of the project and the historical significance of the representation.
- All entries must be postmarked by March 1, 2026. All mailing costs are the responsibility of the member.
- Artwork must be framed and/or ready to be displayed on the wall.
- Videos and slide presentations will not be considered.

Entry Form Completion:

The completed entry form shall be included with the project being submitted.

PSEA Use of Artwork:

All entries become the property of PSEA and may be displayed in various PSEA properties. At such a time when the artwork is no longer being displayed, it will be returned to the submitting member. Please affix contact information to the back of the artwork.
