Wednesday, October 7, 2020 "Getting By" - A Game on Scarcity

*Presenters: Nathan Greenawalt, Director of Special Field Programs
Jeff Grinaway, PSEA UniServ Representative*

What if you couldn't pay your heat in winter? What if your car breaks down and you're fired for being late? Do you pay your bills or feed your children? This hands-on workshop will explore the challenges of living in poverty. You will experience firsthand how poverty changes the way the brain works and the decisions people make. The game will focus on real-life situations and force participants to make decisions quickly.

Wednesday, November 4, 2020 Retirement and Member Benefits

*Presenters: Lisa DePorzio, Kades Margolis Financial Advisor
Jeff Grinaway, PSEA UniServ Representative*

This workshop will describe the changes in the pension system over the last ten years and the impact on retirements. There will also be an opportunity for those in attendance to ask questions regarding pending/planned retirements.

Anxiety!

Presenter: Judith Petruzzi, PSEA Director of Education Services

It is on the rise and spread throughout the nation. This session shares information about anxiety, examines how it is impacting our school-aged children (and sometimes the adults working with them) and discusses some practices and strategies to work with students to overcome this debilitating condition.

If you work in Mercer, Lawrence,
Butler, Clarion, or Beaver County, you should attend the ESP Midwestern Division Meetings.

Flyers containing specific details and registration information will be sent to all local presidents three weeks prior to the workshops and will also be posted on:
