

2018 Student PSEA Conference & Convention

WE ARE...The Change

April 5-7, 2018
The Penn Stater Hotel and Conference Center

Don't miss this fantastic opportunity to:

- Interact with other education majors from across the state
- Attend professional development workshops
- Participate in Outreach to Teach community service project
- Compete for individual and chapter awards and prizes
- Run for state or region office and serve at national and state events

Interested in attending?

Contact your chapter adviser or chapter president.

Need more information?

Learn more at www.psea.org/studentconference or email students@psea.org.

Cost is $85 per person and includes registration, materials, and meals.
Hotel reservations should be made directly with the Penn Stater Hotel & Conference Center to receive the discounted rate of $114+tax per room, per night.

Keynote Address by 2017 PA Teacher of the Year Mike Soskil

More than 15 breakout session topics to choose from, including:

*Working with ELL Students • How do I Land That First Job as a Teacher
Fostering a Growth Mindset in the Classroom • What Every Pre-Professional Educator Should Know
Students with Autism • Classroom Bootcamp (K-6) • Ace Your Interview
Panel: What might my first year out of college be like
And many more!*