Allyship 101:
A Beginner’s Guide to Cultural Competency

Presented by:
Monet Reilly, UniServ Representative
Adam Clark, Region Advocacy Coordinator

This interactive 101 workshop focuses on allyship within the workplace and with the members we serve.

As people strive to become more culturally competent, an important step is recognizing ways to be an ally to marginalized communities.

This session will help you identify the space you occupy, and how that space affects those around you.
